

Management Disclosures

1. “On March 21, 2017, Presidio Health and Doug Evans were the subject of a complaint filed in the Superior Court of California, County of San Francisco, by a former CEO of Presidio Health alleging a breach of his employment contract and failure to pay a short term note issued to him during the course of his employment. The case was settled, and the action dismissed with prejudice on April 18, 2018. Copies of the pleadings and other documents are available in the diligence file.”
